Good Time Coming.

The special committee of the House of Representatives appointed to investigate abuses in the issuing of licenses met last evening in the House to receive testimony from those who believed themselves aggrieved in this matter. Only three persons presented themselves before the committee. One of them was Mr. Walter of the Occidental hotel, who stated that he had applied for a liquor license but had been refused, and upon the advice of his attorney had not taken any further steps to get a license, because his attorney had said "there would be a good time by and by" when licenses would not be hard to get. Outside of this testimony the meeting was a disappointment.

Perfumes

Are the bottled fragrance of sweet-scented flowers. One can, in fancy, picture the mountain home of some peasant in the south of France, the humble cottage, the luxuriant bed of flowers, and the very atmosphere laden with the rich perfume that will later be imprisoned in bottle and sent to all parts of the world. While we cannot offer you the landscape, we bring to you the net result—the perfume. Every flower grown on the sun-kissed slopes of France is represented in our store.

The Light That Never Fails

The Angle Lamp

ALSO CARRY A GOOD STOCK OF HANGING, STAND AND HAND LAMPS

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the island people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people), but, besides being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a new old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as a gas lamp, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.50 up.
